

Headquarter Expansion

Phase III of Hegele's Headquarters Expansion Project was completed in September 2006. Final construction included an additional painting booth with high volume air filtering capacity, and optimization of floor space through cellular operational processes.